The 2018 Victorian Maritime Industry social event will be held on the evening of 27 July, to celebrate Christmas in July, at the Mission to Seafarers from 6PM to Midnight

The Victorian Maritime Industry celebrates its second annual social event, following on from the success of 2017. The event is held to revel in the remarkable diversity of our industry, bringing together as many parts of the industry as possible for a night of celebration.

To add a little festiveness, this year will also be celebrated as Christmas in July. So come out and have a break from the Winter gloom, enjoy a drink, a feed, and a celebration of all things Maritime in this state.

The theme this year is "back to basics" where we will be encouraging everyone to not only don a Christmas hat, but to re-open the history books, reminding ourselves of the past lessons, and maintaining an awareness of the fundamentals that built this beautiful industry.

Huge thanks to the Mission to Seafarers for providing the venue. Without seafarers our industry wouldn't exist, and the Mission does an amazing job at supporting the welfare of the men and women at sea, so it's fantastic that we can use the Mission as our base for their event.
