

YOUNG & JACKSON

a new play about old ways

By Don Reid

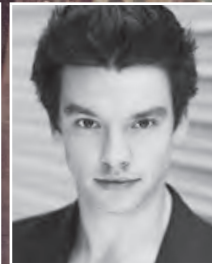

WITH

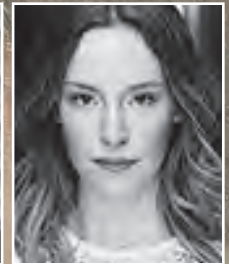

Charlie Cousins

Sam Duncan

Jacob Machin

Gabrielle Scawthorn

directed by Wayne Harrison

5–22 March 2015

Tuesday–Saturday 8pm,

Sunday 4pm, Saturday 14 & 21 4pm

$35–$48

at fortyfivedownstairs,
45 Flinders Lane, Melbourne

bookings

fortyfivedownstairs.com

or phone 03 9662 9966

Level access to the theatre can be arranged by phoning in advance.

Complete the experience and join “Chloe” for a special pre-theatre meal at Young and Jackson Hotel (main course, glass of wine or beer and coffee $32).
Call 03 9650 3884 and mention
Young & Jackson the Play.

Walk home to bed and enjoy accommodation discounts at Victoria Hotel (ph 1800 331 147) or Mercure Treasury Gardens
(ph 1800 813 442) and mention 1945.
Available 5–11 March, 16–18 March,
20–22 March

It's July 1945, the last months of the War, but they don't know it. They just hope it will be all over soon, the Yanks will go home and all their probable futures will be made possible. They're three young naval recruits on leave in Melbourne - and the woman who will change all their lives...

Young & Jackson is the tender, mischievous prequel to Don Reid's award-winning comedy Codgers.

“They wouldn't be dead for quids...”

Critical praise for Codgers:

“This is an astutely observed, insightful but above all warm and heartfelt piece of theatre.”

Daily Telegraph

Designers - Dann Barber & Michael Hili Lighting Designer - Martin Kinnane
Chloe's image has been reproduced with the permission of Young and Jackson Hotel
Design - Miranda Costa