

The Royal United Services Institute of Victoria
Promoting National Security and Defence since 1890

---

SS RELEASE: ADF Ethics Essay Competition

---

8th March 2021

For immediate release:

As a positive response to the Bretherton Report on incidents in Afghanistan, the Royal United Services Institute of Victoria (RUSIV) is running an endowed essay competition on the topic of Ethics for the Australian Defence Force.

This annual competition, judged by an independent panel, will be open to Australian citizens. The prize is $2000. The official launch will be in June 2021 with entries due by 30 November 2021.

RUSIV is a non-partisan body that aims to inform the public on defence and security issues. It occupies Defence premises but is independent of the Department of Defence.

Further details can be obtained from the Secretary, LTCOL Bob Hart.